

Programme

Correct at time of print, subject to change.

Wednesday 5 April, Opening Session

09:00	Registration opens	Oceania, level 3
10:15 - 10:30	Welcome & Mihi whakatau (please be seated by 10.10am)	Te Huinga Centre, level 3
10:30 – 12:00	MOH: Resources & Rationing - Dr Andy Simpson Carol Hodgson: More and more ICU patients survive - but what about recovery? David Pilcher: More ICU data, Less information? Tracey Bucknall: Managing information overload to improve outcomes	Te Huinga Centre, level 3
12:00 – 13:00	Lunch & Exhibition Gallery	Oceania, level 3

Wednesday 5 April, Afternoon Session

13:00 – 14:30	Molly Kallesen: Six Years of Multidisciplinary Tracheostomy Management at CCDHB Cherie Watts: More donation: less stress James Judson: Organ Donation in NZ Jenny Hill: More and More with Less and Less: the National deteriorating patient programme Alex Psirides: Dying to MET you	Te Huinga Centre, level 3
14:30 – 15:00	Afternoon Tea & Exhibition Gallery	Oceania, level 3
15:00 – 16:30	Carol Hodgson: Ventilation in ARDS: more and more choice but what actually works? David Knight: Perils of Technology in ICU Anitra Carr: Saving Lives with Vitamin C Nic Randall: The second victim effect Hamish Wright: Life at the South Pole	Te Huinga Centre, level 3
16:30 – 18:00	Welcome Drinks & Exhibition Gallery	Oceania, level 3

Thursday 6 April, Morning Session

08.00	Registration	Oceania, level 3
08:30 – 10:00	Iwona Stolarek: The Choosing Wisely Campaign Carl Horsley: Safety in the ICU Catherine Hocking: Quality in Critical Care Chris Poynter: More Action, Less Carbon: a plea Chris Nickson: Cognitive Biases/Critical Thinking	Te Huinga Centre, level 3
10:00 – 10:30	Morning Tea & Exhibition Gallery	Oceania, level 3
10:30 – 12:00	David Pilcher: ECMO: more blood, less ventilation Carol Hodgson: The rapid growth of ECMO use in ICU - the patient's perspective - more or less? Hamish Wright: Get Me Out of Here, South Pole edition Chris Nickson: The Science of Learning David Knight: Why does ICU Research fail?	Te Huinga Centre, level 3
12:00 – 13:00	Lunch & Exhibition Gallery	Oceania, level 3
12:15 – 12:45	Fisher & Paykel Healthcare Lunchtime Session: Alison Pirret: 'Using Nasal High Flow Oxygen in the Ward patient'	Rangimarie Room

Thursday 6 April, Afternoon Session

13:00 – 14:30	Free Papers: Stuart Millar: Does the Introduction of a Standardised Handover Process Improve the Quality of Patient Handover in an Intensive Care Unit? Emma Merry: What is the Potential for Organ Donation in Patients presenting to Emergency Departments? Lynsey Sutton-Smith: Sustained Improvement in the Quality of Nurse-Influenced Patient Care in the Intensive Care Unit Tracy McKee: Implementation of Pet Therapy into a Tertiary Level ICU (Poster Presentations to follow)	Te Huinga Centre, level 3
14:30 – 15:00	Afternoon Tea & Exhibition Gallery	Oceania, level 3
15:00 – 16:30	Rachael Parke: Building International Research Collaborations: doing more for less Tom Bond: CPAX - An outcome measure: what, why and how Tom Andrews: Long Term Patients in ICU Panel Discussion Facilitator: Professor Maureen Coombs MBE	Te Huinga Centre, level 3
16:30 – 17:00	ANZICS NZ AGM Followed by NZ CICM AGM 17:00 - 17:30	Te Huinga Centre, level 3
19:00 – 23:00	Gala Dinner	Te Marae, Te Papa, level 4

Friday 7 April, Morning Session

08.00	Registration opens	Oceania, level 3
08:30 – 10:00	Chris Nickson: Stress exposure training Carl Horsley: It's Not About Being "The Guy" (or Gal)-Leading in Complexity Dr Rachael Parke: Stress & Burnout in the ICU: The Perfect Storm Deb Chalmers: Self Care & Welfare	Te Huinga Centre, level 3
10:00 – 10:30	Morning Tea & Exhibition Gallery	Oceania, level 3
10:30 – 12:00	Tracey Bucknall: Communicating with Patients and Families: Choosing the right words Nic Randall: Empathy and Compassion in an intensive world Dave Pilcher: The changing face of ICU: outcomes & demographics Paul Young: Everything new you might want to do (or not)	Te Huinga Centre, level 3
12:30	Presentation of Free Paper Prizes Close	Te Huinga Centre, level 3